ABOUT CMF & CMA

The Rocky Mountain Center for Musical Arts was founded in 1995 by Kathy Kucsan and Peggy Bruns. The Colorado Music Festival completed its 39th season in 2015. These two organizations merged in 2009 and, in 2013 the new name, Colorado Music Festival & Center for Musical Arts (CMF & CMA), was chosen.

CMF & CMA is a one-of-a-kind organization that provides a broad spectrum of music education opportunities and world-class performances to citizens throughout Boulder County and beyond. The Center provides quality, creative music-making opportunities to over 550 students each week with over 7,000 people visiting the school each year to attend concerts and events of all kinds!

The CMA is a full member of the National Guild for Community Arts Education and has, at its core, a belief in "Music For All... For Life!" This translates into providing access to excellent music education to our entire community. We achieve this, in part, through our Heartstrings Program, which consists of an instrument bank to provide low-cost instrument rentals and tuition assistance, so that everyone can afford to participate.

CMF presents a six-week summer concert season in the historic Chautauqua Auditorium in Boulder, showcasing the CMF Orchestra. Inspired programming performed by exceptional national and international musicians has earned CMF recognition from the League of American Orchestras and the National Endowment for the Arts.
