

CODY GARRISON, PIANO

Pianist Cody Guy Garrison enjoys a diverse career as a collaborative pianist. He is on faculty in Metropolitan State University Denver's music department as an accompanist in the brass and woodwinds departments. He serves as a pianist for Opera Colorado and performed on Colorado Public Radio with the vocalists from the opera "As One" last season.

He is the staff accompanist for the Boulder Symphony, and performed Liszt's "Totenanz" with the Symphony as the soloist last season. He has recently been in recital with violist Rose Shaw of the Orchestre Symphonique de Montréal and the Grammy-winning mezzo-soprano Michelle DeYoung, and studies with Dr. Tamara Goldstein of Denver. When not performing, Dr. Garrison practices dentistry with his business partner, Dr. Carley Janda, at City Roots Dental, their private practice in Denver, Colorado.
